Frosh Benefit Proves Huge Success

Fortune Tellers
Draw Crowds

Clever Rhymes Of Shirley Norwood Add Much To Program

This year's freshman benefit was enthusiastically and unanimously pronounced a bang-up success, bringing a coveted reputation to the "class of '42". A veritable host of students, as well as visitors, were present to enjoy the numbers of booths, the inimitable floor show, and varied styles and types of dancing.

Fortune-telling by Miss Tribble and Dr. Sinclair proved immensely popular, crowds hovering around their booths incessantly.

Everyone appeared enthusiastic over the refreshments. Booths filled with hot dogs, cold drinks, pop-sicles, and cakes and candies were quickly over-run by hungry youths filled with a desire for nourishment.

The crazy house, freak show, grab bag, puppet show, bingo table, etc., all afforded great measures of delight.

Climaxing the evening's entertainment was the floor show, uproariously applauded by the entire audience. A bit of heretofore hidden talent was uncovered when a quartette composed of Betty Anthony, Dru Martin, Shirley Norwood, and Jo Reasor harmoniously entertained the crowd. These four girls have been asked to sing not only in the dining hall but also at Kwanian meeting.

Other musical talent was displayed when faculty members, Dr. Vogleback and Mr. Weiss offered a vocal rendition of Cornell's Alma Mater.

At the close of the floor show, Miss Bid Bodwell, her ticket having been drawn as the "lucky" one, received a beautiful cake which she generously distributed among the guests.

Music for dancing was furnished throughout the evening by the M. W. C. dance orchestra under the able direction of Mr. Ronald Faulkner.

The record-breaking sum of approximately $120 was taken in at the carnival.

Wails of disappointment rent the air at the close of the carnival, and the throng of people departed feeling that it was unjust for such a hilarious event to end all too quickly.

Senior Club Members To Be Honored

Virginia Fiske Will Lead Figure

Tomorrow night the gymnasium transformed materially will be the scene of the final Cotillion dance of the year.

The walls have been painted with attractive nautical murals. Deck chairs will be placed on the balcony and anchors and wheels will carry out the theme.

The figure, led by Miss Virginia Fiske, president and her escort Frank Roberts, will be in the form of a huge anchor. Those in the figure will march to the strands of "Anchors Away." Miss Fiske will wear a gown of white chiffon with rhinestone straps.

Symbolic of a farewell cruise, the dance will be in honor of the senior Cotillion Club members. There has been much time and effort exerted in preparation for the affair and it is going to be a memorable dance in the annals of the college.

Miss Fox Speaks At Alpha Phi Sigma Meeting

Miss Frances Fox, young business woman of Washington, D. C., was guest speaker at the last meeting of Alpha Phi Sigma. Miss Fox has recently returned from a six months tour of 24 foreign countries, which she effectively summarized in her speech, "General Impressions of Places and People." She ably held the attention of her audience with many vivid accounts of her impressions and experiences abroad. She made the voyage entirely by herself and could speak only English. This absence of the knowledge of foreign language was responsible for one of her most exciting experiences, when, in Poland, she gathered the wrong impression of a foreign lad's effort to help her and almost subjected herself to an enemy air raid.

After the meeting, Miss Fox was entertained in the tea room by the fraternity's sponsor, Mrs. Dodd, and their degree members, Jeanette Cooper, Raynell Goodman, Nan Birchett, Peggy Snow, Mary Williamson Bowles, Jennie Lee Reynolds, Sophie Eisen, Lucy Harris, Virginia Dickinson, Kathryn Wygal, Myrtis Hall, and Ruth Hooker.

EDITORIAL

Mary Agnes Repass

Do you get up in the morning curiously and wonderfully glad to be alive and eager to put something fine and enduring into these last few days of school? If you do, all is well; but even if you don't, it isn't too late to start making the remaining few weeks count as having been sown in enthusiasm and reaped in joy.

Look about you—Spring is here in all of its splendor. Hear the songs of the birds; see the sunshine and the rain; watch the flowers and trees bud and bloom. Be grateful that you are in a country that is blessed with peace and beauty, and do your part to keep it that way. It is true that your part may be small. You may not gain recognition for what you do. But it takes a host of little acts to make a tremendous whole. It's the average girl, one who lives and helps others to live, that makes the world go round.

So, start tomorrow, Miss Mary Washington, to live up to the name you bear more beautifully than you have ever done before. Oftentimes it's the covering of the last few feet of turf in the race that counts the most. School lasts but five weeks more. Put into the days something good and noble. Make Mary Washington better for your having been a part of it.

Jo Peoples is going in for "bugs" this spring. The love bug bit her, "Skeeter's" courtin' her, and now she says she'll land in the "bug house" if she has to listen to radios play "I Love You Truly"—that is—if she has to listen to it—alone.

Mo Kent is doing all right by her pals. She's taking Nancy's ex-George to the "Cotillion" and Jeanne's ex-Billy to the Junior-Senior. Thank goodness she can't go to the Alumni Dance, or my "present" might become an "ex."

Wiz Hall is giving her friend Nancy Herr a helping hand. One of Nancy's intended stooges wrote her suggesting she show him around the campus Sunday after the Cotillion. Well, Nancy sort of figured she'd like to show "Woody" around so—Nancy's "would have been stagg" is now Wiz's stagg.

Wonder who Sara Anne will have to the dance? Suppose it'll be George. Just think she's been engaged five months now and she's still in love and very much so! Walter J. was in the tea room the other night with Margaret Emerick. You're wrong, Walter J., I didn't put in that crack about you last week! But here goes—Saw a few freshmen take a look at you and breathe a bit deeper—

Grundy, "Bobby Jones" Clark sure swings a mean swing! You should see her on the golf course. That is—when the dust subsides!

Needles and Pins—Needles and Pins—Scootie Booker is so attached to her Major field, Home Ec., that she runs around with pins in her mouth from force of habit.

Alice Claire "Frankenstein" Hodges and her room-mate, Bunny, the monster, have a system for getting back from town rapidly. One runs ahead of the other, hides, then jumps out with a boo! The other jumps six feet in sheer fright and then the tables are turned. And so on—up the hill. "Garnsey" Garnsey is going to Washington again this week-end to see "Butch." Say, Garns—why don't you transfer to Washington and Lee sump'n?

Dr. Young Attends Conference In New York

Dr. W. J. Young of the Department of Philosophy and Psychology was the special guest of Dr. Duncan MacInnes of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research at the Spring Conference of the Physical Chemistry Section of the New York Academy of Sciences April 14 and 15 and at the banquet on Friday night. Dr. MacInnes introduced Dr. Young through the section to the Council of the New York Academy of Sciences of which he was recently elected a member.

The topic of the Conference was "Dialectics" in which Dr. Young is much interested owing to his researches in the Correlativity of Field Structures. While in New York, Dr. and Mrs. Young were house guests of Dr. McIvor Woody, former Dean of the Harvard Medical School and Hon. J. Laurence Elmore, both of whom were school chums of Dr. Young at Richmond College. Many of the most prominent scientists in the country were in attendance at the Conference.

Geepers, Creepers, time is creeping up and all the wonderful festivity is almost here—All you're Cotillion girls!!

Nancy Moseley, Jean Meades, Jamie Redwood, and Frances Bolen were cute girls and trucked right down to Hampden Sidney for dances.

Margaret Emerick had as her week-end visitors Mary Lawrence Davenport, Dorothy Vernon, Bette Cook, and Martha Lee Bennett. They attended the Young Democrats Dance at Goose Creek on Saturday night.

Maude Brown is planning on tripping off home to N. C. this week-end! More fun!

Sadie Lee, Margaret Marshall will be the week-end guests of Betty Washington at her home in Crotez.

Sara Ann Chandler and 'George' were the guests of their grandmother in West Point.

Glennis Powers attended the dance at Goose Creek Saturday night.

Eleanor Phillips will spend this week-end in Baltimore.

Jane Donnelly will spend the week-end in New York.

Oh! We saw you Jinny Fiske tripping right off to Randolph-Macon.

"Jo" Peoples still isn't awake! We do wonder why. After all, "Jo" those old May Frolics at Chapel Hill aren't anything.

Join The Roof Garden Parade

With this June-like weather we stooges are wending our weary way over towards the roof garden. From every direction, any time of day, may be seen students garbed in multicolored cotton frocks, under which they are dressed in shorts and halters or bathing suits. Laden with blankets, pillows, books, and the inevitable sunglasses, trudge up the steps to the roof. A spectacle awaits us as we reach the top. A mass of femininity sprawled out to get the benefits of the sun's rays. There is barely enough room for one more to squeeze in. But, as the saying goes, there is always room for one more. And so there is.

It resembles Coney Island or any other bathing beach—with people packed that there is scarcely room for us to walk. Over in one corner we hear a group of girls studying for a history test, which we learn is to be given next hour. Several others are discussing the coming dance this week-end. "If only it doesn't rain" or "if I can only get a smooth tan" before then, but I shall probably be a mass of blisters," they sigh. Others are peacefully stopping to admire your sunburn, which, you hope, will soon turn to tan.

By dusk we will see a group of sun-burned girls walking about the campus, with an occasional "What a gorgeous sun-burn, you have!", "How long were you out?" or "Did you get all that today?" from a passerby stopping to admire your sunburn, which, you hope, will soon turn to tan.

It kinda looks like half of M. W. C. has been sunning themselves at Miami Beach this winter instead of working hard up here at school.

NUDE NOGGIN: Latest money-making freak stunt to supplement the gold fish and phonograph record eating contests of collegians comes from Ohio State. Last week Ernest R. Tennenbaum, a sophomore, had his hair clipped off neatly and smoothly for a $5 bill donated by his Tau Epsilon Phi brethren if he'd go through with the dare. Hair tonic manufacturers will prosper as never before if this idea goes the way of the gold fish gulping contests.

Six Delicious Flavors

CORVALLIS, Ore. — (ACP)—Close on the heels of the announcement that an eastern scientist has increased physical endurance by use of gelatine drinks, E. C. Callaway, biochemist at Oregon State College, has revealed that for more than five years he has been conducting experiments with Beaver athletic teams that indicate a striking relationship between physical endurance and alkaline reserve in body tissues.

Tomato Juice

Prof. Callaway and those with whom he has worked say the process is still in the experimental stage, and they caution against the "shot-gun" use of excess alkali without regard to other nutritional factors. Damage to the body may result from the use of too much alkali or alkaline salts in unbalanced proportions.

The present research had its origin in 1933 when Dr. R. L. Bosworth, team physician at that time, kept the men of the famous "iron-man" football team full of tomato juice as one means of keeping up their endurance. This was the team that first stopped the winning streak of the U. S. C. Trojans.

Alkaline Reserve

Since then Prof. Callaway, working in his spare time with physicians, trainers and coaches, has run biochemical tests on athletes before and after athletic contests, and correlated their performance with degree of alkaline reserve.

Orange Juice

Tomato and orange juices supplemented with certain chemical alkalies have been Prof. Callaway's method, used in cooperation with team physicians, of keeping men in shape to "do for dear old 'Alma Mater" without dying of fatigue. Properly applied, Callaway finds that this system will clip several seconds from the time of distance runners and swimmers, and will delay serious fatigue in basketball, football and rowing by 10 to 20 per cent.

Blood and Muscles

"Other things being equal, an athlete's ability to stay in a severely contested game and perform at top efficiency is roughly proportional to what might be termed his optimum alkali reserve in his blood and muscles," Prof. Callaway concludes. "That is to say, it requires more alkali reserve to perform at top speed in a basketball game or crew race than it does to walk along the street. There is abundant physiological explanation for this fact."

Dr. Vogelback Speaker At Y. W. C. A. Meeting

The Y. W. C. A. had its regular monthly meeting Wednesday evening. The guest speaker for the evening was Dr. A. L. Vogelback, who has taken a very active part in the college activities since becoming a member of its faculty. He spoke very interestingly about the life and activities of the American sailor of today. The information used by Dr. Vogelback was gathered from his own personal experience as a seaman a few years ago. The words and expressions with which Dr. Vogelback clothes his experiences are particularly pleasing and transports one into the arena of life of which he is speaking. In other words, Y. W. Cabinet put to sea with the sagacious sailor, Dr. Vogelback, and it was with extreme reluctance that land was sighted and the meeting brought to a close with the serving of refreshments.

Man Of "Ours"

How one person can do so many different things and do them all so wonderfully well is beyond me. But, that as it may, we of Mary Washington have such an individual on our own college campus. The man to whom I refer is none other than our one, our only, our beloved Dr. Alvey.

On Tuesday he, with the help of Mr. Weiss, delighted the Freshman student body at their Chapel program by showing numerous slides taken in Colorado and New Mexico during a trip there last summer.

The place which Dr. Alvey holds in the hearts of Mary Washingtoners, however, has not been won by movie slides. The place is his because of his eagerness to and the enthusiasm with which he helps students solve the many problems which confront them day by day. Having seen the throngs of girls which come to his office from nine to five every day of the week for guidance and advice, I marvel at his patience, his sincerity of purpose, and the readiness with which he enters into activities outside his "workshop."

A toast to Dr. Alvey! Whether it be placements, credentials, or movie slides, he's tops!

"AN IF FOR GIRLS"

- If you can dress to make yourself attractive
- Can rise above unfriendly snubs and slurs;
- Yet not make puffs and curls your chief delight;
- If you can swim and row, be strong and active,
- But of the gentler graces lose not sight;
- If you can dance without a craze for dancing,
- Play without giving play too strong a hold,
- Enjoy the love of friends without romancing,
- Care for the weak, the friendless and the old;
- If you can master French and Greek and Latin,
- And not acquire, as well, a priggish mien;
- If you can feel the touch of silk and satin
- Without despising calico and jeans;
- If you can ply a saw and use a hammer,
- Can do a man's work when the need occurs,
- Can sing, when asked, without excuse or stammer,
- If you can make good bread as well as fudges;
- Can sew with skill, and have an eye for dust;
- If you can be a friend and hold no grudges,
- A girl whom all will love because they must;
- If sometime you should meet and love another
- And make a home with faith and peace enshrined,
- And you its soul,—a loyal wife and mother,
- You'll work out pretty nearly to my mind
- The plan that's been developed through the ages,
- And win the best that life can have in store.
- You'll be, my girl, a model for the ages,
- A woman whom the world will bow before.

For Dames
On Dates

ROCK ISLAND, Ill.—(ACP)—Collegians throughout the nation will stand up and cheer the recent announcement of "Do's and Don'ts for Dames on Dates" made by Augustana College men.

Just to clear the air of a lot of disturbing thoughts and actions, Augustana men have drawn up 15 rules they believe their co-ed companions should follow. Here they are:

1. Don't keep your date waiting. Be prompt.
2. Don't try to make too good an impression the first night.
3. Don't be a walking cosmetic counter.
4. Don't ponder over the menu for half an hour and then eat only a small portion of your order.
5. Don't eat too much. The boy wants to go to school four years too.
6. Don't try to attract the attention of other fellows while on a date.
7. Don't retouch makeup in public.
8. Do something to show your appreciation.
9. Do your education justice by keeping the conversation interesting.
10. Do something to overcome the desire to be sophisticated and glamorous. Be natural.

11. Do your part in this dating business by at least presenting the opportunity for our asking you.

12. Do your best to converse and mix with us.

13. Do your share in supporting sports events.

14. Do believe us when we say "looks" aren't everything.

15. Don't each of you take each of these suggestions to heart. We believe many of you are doing all right—but there is always room for improvement.
